South Gate Student Ministry Cetting Lost in God's Story - Luke 9:24

We are so glad to have each and every one of you. If you are visiting with us, you are our honored guests. We pray God is honored in our worship and that you are encouraged. South Gate is a growing congregation that desires to please God in our actions and to encourage others to do the same.

This quarter, we have been focusing on our families. This morning we will look at God's instructions when it comes to the all important aspect of forgiving others. Our goal is to be challenged and changed by God's will for our life. We are so glad you are here!

Words cannot express the gratitude my sister and I have for each of you. You loved our parents to the very end. Our mother was not forgotten after our father's death. Thank you for the prayers, flowers, food and visits. Thank you most of all for loving them. They were richly blessed by knowing you. —Children of Ethel Spears
