We are glad you are with us today. This year our focus is upon unity. There is a lot of talk about unity in the religious world today. Unfortunately many who are the biggest promoters of unity have very different ideas about what it means and looks like. Here at South Gate it is our goal for the year to focus upon unity and examine it and its various aspects from God's perspective. Unity is so much more than a feel good idea or slogan. It is a commitment and attitude of the heart to keep God's people together and be united among and in the things God has said should unite us. Unity is never about what I want or you want but what God wants. Will you join us?
