Teens in the Student Center

Good morning! It is good to see so many of you back after a week of break from school. It is good to come back together in the presence of our loving God and Father, and praise His high and holy name. If you are visiting with us we are so glad you have come to worship together with us.

This morning we will continue to consider how to work on getting into better spiritual shape. We have seen the need for honesty, and the importance of showing kindness to others. This morning we will look at the role patience plays in a healthy relationship with God and others. May the Lord bless us as we strive to be the people He wants us to be in order to bring light and hope into the world!
