*I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the Lord!"*

Psalm 122:1

I hope this Psalm reflects your feelings this morning as we come into the presence of the Lord. If you are visiting we are honored by your presence, and hope you will be blessed by our time of worship and study this morning. Please come back every opportunity you can.

Time Change for Next Sunday December 25th

In order to allow families more time together next Sunday, we are adjusting our time of worship. We will have one extended time of worship and praise next Sunday morning starting at 10:30! This will last until around noon, and we will not have Bible Classes or evening worship.

If at any time you are unable to gather with us for worship on Sunday and would like to take the Lord's Supper, we want you to know we have communion cups that can be used. Simply contact the church office and we will be happy to make them available for you.

THANK YOU NOTES

Thank you so much for your help with the demolition of my home after the flood. I wanted to thank each person who helped personally but I did not have their addresses. It has been a difficult time and this group made my life easier. Hope you and your families have a blessed holiday.—Aretha Ainsworth

Thank you very much for thinking of our school's families and helping provide them with a Thanksgiving dinner. We greatly appreciate your kindness in thinking of our families and their needs. You are a blessing to this community! —Highland Park Elementary

Benny, the children and I appreciate so very much your remembrance of my mother with the arrangement of yellow mums. The congregation fed our family from Friday through Monday. We thank you for this thoughtfulness. The songs sung by the members of our church family were very comforting. Most of all we thank you for the love and prayers you have comforted us and my mother with.—In Christian Love, Alice Bolton
