We are focusing on the work of the Ladies' Bible Class this week. The class meets each Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall September - May. Teachers are Melba Pollard, Beverly Wesley, Sara Farris, Rita Skelley and Dana White. We are currently studying Daughters of Eve (Strength for Today...from Women of Yesterday) by Lottie Beth Hobbs.

As shown by the picture below, our ladies are involved in a number of projects each year. Goodie baskets are taken to the hospital, gifts are taken to shut-ins at Christmas, Valentine's Day, and Easter. Food is taken to shut-ins, meals are provided (with your help) and served for families following a death, and cards are sent out each week to sick and shut-ins. Some other projects are making teddy bears for City of Children, prayer quilts and walker bags for sick and shut-ins, etc. Contributions have also been made to the mission work in Greece, youth projects, the Scholarship Fund, etc. Any time there is a need our ladies always step up to the occasion.

There is a potluck luncheon each 3rd Wednesday following class and men of the congregation are invited to come eat. During the summer months we meet on the 3rd Wednesday for lunch at a local restaurant.

We invite all ladies to join us.
