Welcome!!!

We are so glad to have each of you with us as we gather to give God our praise and adoration. In a broken world full of pain, suffering, and confusion, we come into the presence of the one who gives us comfort, peace, and purpose. We are here to acknowledge weakness, our need for a Lord, our desire to be better, and we have confidence that He welcomes us with open arms. If you are visiting with us, we are honored by your presence and are thrilled you have joined us.

See an usher if you need gluten-free Communion

This past weekend at CYC was one to remember! The lessons that were taught were powerful! The singing sounded like we were in Heaven! A huge amount of memories were made! The food was delicious! The chaperones on the trip were so helpful, and they were a true blessing to have along with us! We are so thankful for times where we can go to the mountains to praise the LORD for everything He has done for us, and refuel for the remainder of the school year!
