Our 2nd Annual Men's Advance was a great success. This served as a great occasion to enjoy the company of several brothers. It is always great to take advantage of opportunities like this to build some meaningful relationships or strengthen existing ones within the church. Despite the value our culture places on the individual, God has never intended anyone to stand alone or be stand alone Christians. It is my prayer you will make the most of every occasion to get to know the people you worship with. Let's stop just going to church together and really know each other.
