What is the Church?

During September and October we will be focusing on this question on Wednesday nights. Make plans to be here each week as guest speakers address various aspects of what we, as the church, are to be in the world.

The only thing better than being here yourself is to have a friend come with you. We have a number of postcards that you can use to invite others. Take some and to work as a reminder to you and as a way to start up a conversation with others about what God is looking for out of His people. Wednesday nights are important at South Gate! Make plans to be here!
