Good morning! It is a great time to come into the presence of our Lord and focus on Him. We come to offer thanks for His love, grace, and mercy, and to focus on the gift of His Son Jesus Christ for each one of us. If you are visiting we are so happy to have you share this time with us.

This morning we will look at ways to take the "next step" in our spiritual lives. Regardless of our past or our current relationship with Jesus everyone has the need to take another step in their walk with God. We always want to be seeking higher ground, and during the next few weeks we will look at ways to do this successfully.

Plan on coming back tonight as we begin a series examining the life of one of the biggest names in the early church. We will begin a study on the life of Peter. Focusing on his life that was full of ups and downs while walking with God will give us great times of reflection as we consider our own walk. Plan to come back tonight and you will be blessed as we study God's word!
