God continues to work through the Children’s Home in Belo and I am blessed for being part of the board of trustees. The 4th house was finished and inaugurated in May (top right picture) and is already in full operation! We can now serve the children even better! May God be praised!

WE ARE EXPECTING!

Ana and I are thrilled to share with you that there is a baby girl on the way!

In 2013, we began a ministry for young married couples and have been meeting to talk about marriage life ever since. Last month, we celebrated 5 years of this group (see above) and had a special dinner to thank God and the couples who have helped us. It was great!
