Welcome to South Gate this morning. A few weeks ago we started a study entitled One Moment After Death. This morning we will consider the second lesson. Many Scriptures will be used and I encourage much further Biblical research concerning this theme. While there are various views espoused on this subject, all can agree that it is so important to be right with God when we take our last breath. Now let's worship the one who promises eternal life.

THANK YOU NOTES

Thank you and bless you for being so special and remembering me on Valentine's Day. Thanks for the good candy.

In Christian Love, Corrine Goetz

Thanks very much for the Valentine candy. It was a good treat.

In Christian Love, O.G. Church

Thanks for every act of kindness you have given to me. All the good food, cards, candy and visits are greatly appreciated.

In Christian Love, Bernice Bratton

A special thanks to Linda Mabry, who made a donation to the building fund in loving memory of Dot Martin.

The Tennessee Children's Home will be in our area on Tuesday, March 21. They are asking that we participate in their spring food drive.

You are asked to bring canned goods, loose leaf paper for their school or consider giving a $15 donation. If you have any coin boxes, please have them ready also. Donations may be given to Jim Pollard or Dana White. Any food items may be placed outside the secretary office door.
