Thank you for choosing to meet at South Gate this morning. Meeting together with people who want to serve God is an inspiration and a great encouragement. Never underestimate the great value in this time together.

In Ephesians 6:20, Paul refers to himself as an ambassador in chains. What is an ambassador and how should we fill that role today? Let's look closer at this question from the words of Paul in II Corinthians 5. May all that we do this morning help us to glorify the Lord in our lives.
