It is good to see each and everyone of you this morning. We have come to give praise and honor to our God. He and He alone is worthy of our devotion, and we come together to enter His presence and to remember the sacrifice of His Son. If you are visiting we are honored by your presence.

This morning we will continue our studying concerning discipling others. This is the deliberate process of helping others to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. Every Christian is called on to be active in efforts to make new disciples(Matthew 29:19,20), and to strengthen disciples they come in contact with on a regular basis. Our goal this morning is to set our hearts to pray for this process in our lives, and to consider the actions needed to successfully help others become the disciples God wants them to be. May our hearts be directed toward Him and may He bless our focus on His word this morning.

The South Gate congregation received the following anonymous thank you letter.

Our son was sick and had to have surgery at Maury Regional over Christmas. The nurse took him and let him pick a gift and a stocking from the tree. It said it was from your church. We just wanted to say thank you. It was very nice and thoughtful of your church to fix the gifts for the hospital. Our son is four and he loved it and thought it was special. Thank You!
