How I See It. By: Brian Gregory

The past few days have been exciting for us here at Eastside. We have now officially closed on our building loan, permits have been approved and as of Tuesday, dirt is being moved. This project is finally underway. Of course it will take several more months to complete. In the end this new building will better enable us to reach others and do more for the cause of Christ. Our present location has served us well for many years but unfortunately the growth of the city and especially the redirecting of HWY 50 has left us cut off from most of the city. It is astonishing how many people have no idea where our building is because we are tucked away in a neighborhood. Having a building on one of the most traveled roads in town will solve this problem. For all of the excitement and opportunities this building will bring, we must remember in the end it is just a building. Sure it will be a great facility to meet in. However, the real success for Christ will come from the efforts of each of the members who attend there.

I am fully aware there have been and still are some disgruntled feelings about the building project and several misunderstandings. I also know some will not make the move with us and have even said they will go elsewhere. On the other hand the overwhelming majority of members support this project. With that said, we all need to ask ourselves, what can I do? First, support the project through daily prayer. Ask God to help this project along and for the sale of this building. Pray for the elders as they plan and make decisions about it. Pray for the safety of the workers. Pray for you to have a greater role whatever it may be. Second, support it through encouragement. Tell the elders you support the decisions they have made. Let others know your enthusiasm about it and speak positively about it. Third, support it by showing up and being involved. A 20 million dollar building would look nice but if few showed up to worship there what good would it be? Your presence alone shows some level of support. Fourth, support it by inviting friends and family to come be a part of what Eastside has to offer. Regardless of where we are located everyone should do this. God never said you are personally responsible for teaching and baptizing people. But we must give as many people as possible the opportunity to hear the gospel. Finally, support it through giving. No, this is not an attempt to make anyone feel guilty. God does not want your money if guilt is attached. The reality is the Lord's work takes money. I am fully aware these are "tough times" for a lot of people. Yet, I am convinced, everyone can give something, $50.00, $100.00, $500.00 etc. . . Maybe you cannot afford a lump sum but what about small weekly or monthly increases in your giving? If everyone gave only $10 more per week our contribution would well surpass our budget. We should all be thankful our elders have prayerfully considered a "plan" for what to do with God's money. How will you support this work and every work at Eastside?

Summits of the Psalms

By: Joe Macer

Psalm 96

96:3 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples.

This Psalm is full of wonder and amazement about the Lord of all the earth. The author wanted everyone in all the nations to know God, to know about his marvelous deeds and to know of his salvation. Songs should be sung to glorify his name and praise should be showered upon him.

The Psalmist wanted all people to worship God. All other gods were idols but God was the maker of the heavens and earth. Men were called to come together into the courts of the temple in order to worship him. Come before him in joy but also with fear and trembling. The heavens rejoice. The earth is glad. The sea resounds. The fields are jubilant and the trees of the forest sing for joy. People should also ascribe glory to his name. O, how he deserves our praise.

The writer also reminds us that God will be our judge. He will judge the peoples with equity. He will also judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in his truth. Never forget that one day we will stand before God and he will be our judge. God will deal with wickedness whether it is now or not until the day of judgment. We should strive to serve God in righteousness and holiness. He is worthy of our very best. Let's praise him with our words and with our lives.

EDUCATION: Special video series based on Gary Chapman's best selling book "The Five Love Languages". It is primarily a series to help improve marriages but this study will help us all to better meet the needs of those we deal with on a daily basis. It is a great opportunity for us to improve our marriages and invite friends to watch the videos with us as well. If you will commit to this study it will bless your lives.

11/16 Love Language Four: Acts of Service

11/30 Love Language Five: Physical Touch

12/7 Growing in Love

Wed. night videos will be repeated on Sunday morning in main auditorium until Dec. 11th.

Thanks to each and everyone who have sent cards to me as a shut-in. I am pretty much shut-in except for the doctors' offices. I do think so much of friends and family that were at Eastside when I could attend services. Many that I knew are gone, and new ones came in. Many changes since I could attend. Thanks again for the little baskets brought to me on holidays. I love getting them and the visits.
