If you love "Potluck Sundays" at Eastside, here's your chance to insure all your favorite dishes will be prepared at our next fellowship. Hayley Gilliam, Rachel Farris and Paula Gilliam will be putting together an Eastside church of Christ Cookbook. Please submit detailed recipes of your favorite dishes and bring them with you to worship. You may place your recipes in the labeled trays on the round table in the foyer or give them to Hayley, Rachel or Paula. They encourage you to submit your own recipes as well as your favorites from other past or present Eastside members.

There is no limit to the amount of recipes you may submit. However, if they receive many duplicate recipes or too many recipes in general, they may have a 2nd edition cookbook at a later date. All recipes must be submitted no later than January 31st, 2011. They plan to have the cookbook completed and available the first Sunday in March.

Summits of the Psalms

By: Joe Macer

Psalm 52

52:1 Why do you boast of evil, you mighty man?
Why do you boast all day long, you who are a disgrace in the eyes of God?

Have you ever looked an evil man in the eye? When meeting him face to face, what emotions run through your mind? There are some mean, evil people in this world. They seek to harm and destroy. No concern is shown for the one they try to dominate and control. The Psalmist described him as loving evil, plotting destruction with a tongue like a razor and speaking falsehoods. Tradition handed down ascribed this Psalm to David when he met Doeg at Nob. Doeg told Saul that he had seen David with the priest Ahimelech. Saul had 85 priests slain as well as other men, women and children in Nob.

David saw this man, knew of his evil deeds and yet believed that God was in control. He understood that God would bring him down to everlasting ruin. The evil man would be snatched from his tent and uprooted from the land of the living. The writer stood before God with confidence. It was much better to be in his shoes than in the shoes of the evil man. The evil man may bring us harm but the righteous man has made God his stronghold and he should never cower before or be ashamed due to the wicked man's threats or actions. God brings about justice.

The writer confessed his trust in God and his desire to praise God. He compared himself to an olive tree flourishing in the house of God. Did you know that an olive tree can live for hundreds of years? He intended to praise God forever. May we all strive to have a right relationship with God. Such good things await those who love the Lord but the evil man will come to ruin and eternal destruction.

28 Days of Prayer

How spiritual are you? Are you where you want to be? Are you where God wants you to be? For the year 2011, the elders want to give you tools to increase your spirituality. We will be using Colossians 3 as our guide for this year. The first step is for us to set our minds on things above. The goal for this month is for us to pray each day. We have selected a prayer and thought each day to help us focus on things above. Please join us as we prepare our hearts and minds to be more spiritual through prayer.

Your Elders

Sunday, January 2 - Day 1 - Prepare our minds to pray. Col. 3:2

Monday, January 3 - Day 2 - Pray that we will humble our hearts before Him. I Peter 5:6

Tuesday, January 4 - Day 3 - Pray that we will cast away our cares. I Peter 5:6

Wednesday, January 5 - Day 4 - Remember where I am. Prayerfully focus upon the blessings and expectations of being saved.

Thursday, January 6 - Day 5 - Remember where I was. Prayerfully focus upon where we came from and what we have come to. I Cor. 6:9-11

Friday, January 7 - Day 6 - Thank God in prayer for the fact I am saved and my sins are forgiven. I John 1:6-7

Saturday, January 8 - Day 7 - Focus upon our future. I am going to Heaven when Christ returns.
