How I See It. By: Brian Gregory

Over the past few years, I have become more interested in hunting. As a boy I would often spend hours in the woods hoping to kill anything with fur or feathers. But as I grew older I gave up hunting. Thankfully I have been able to pursue this sport even more the last few years. One of my favorite things to hunt is by far deer. This big animal is very popular to hunt. I have seen many people with nice bucks hanging on the wall and looked at a lot of pictures of someone else's success. To be honest I have killed a few deer but nothing to really brag about. Finally this past weekend my time came and I shot a buck that is worth mounting on the wall as my own personal trophy. For all the tips and techniques used in hunting, I have concluded most of it comes down to being in the right place at the right time. For example, I had seen several deer the morning I killed the big one. Had I left sooner, I would have been at the right place, but it would have been the wrong time.

I have also noticed much of life's success depends upon us being in the right place at the right time. If you want to get paid each week, you must show up at work (the right place) on time and stay all day (the right time). As Christians this should take on special significance. We must intentionally be in the right places at the right times. One of the greatest ways to do this is through our consistent, faithful attendance of Bible study and worship. However, the question often asked is why? First, in a special way, Jesus is there (Mt. 18:20). Worship was important to Jesus (Lk. 4:16). He never asked, "Do I have to?" Furthermore, Jesus is there for us to commune with Him in the Lord's Supper (Mt. 26:27-29). Second, faithful like minded Christians are there. Each of us need encouragement and strengthening. When we gather for worship each of these things take place (Heb. 10:24; Acts 2:42-45). Not being present hurts you and causes you to grow weak in your faith. Sometimes to the point you will almost never attend. As my Granny would have rightly said, "Shame on you" for missing out on what you would have benefited so much from. Third, it helps you set the right example for others (1 Tm. 4:12). One of the greatest ways to proclaim your faith is by worshipping God regularly. Others will see and know what you are doing. The most needed place to set this example is in the home. How sad and sinful when parents refuse/ fail to bring their children to worship especially when they ask. When those children become unfaithful to God and/ or fail to become Christians, who is to blame? There are many other reasons why we should attend worship, but by putting ourselves in that right place and time it will help us stay in the right place and right time in our daily lives.

Summits of the Psalms

By: Joe Macer

Psalm 98

98:4 Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music;

A word that comes to mind when considering God's involvement with Israel is salvation. "His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him." God's power and his righteousness gave him the ability to bring about the salvation of the nation of Israel. He had made it known and revealed it to the nations. The nations knew of God's salvation at the Red Sea. They heard of the shepherd boy killing the giant. Reports were received about the fall of Jericho and Gideon's army of 300 defeating thousands. News spread concerning 85,000 soldiers dying outside the walls of Jerusalem. God acted on behalf of his people. God provided salvation from Israel's enemies and this brought them joy. The natural reaction was to sing songs of praise to God.

Today we still talk of the salvation of God. We are reminded of his involvement with Israel but even more important than those historical accounts was the salvation provided by the death, burial and resurrection of his Son – Jesus Christ. We know Christ defeated the enemies of Satan and death. We have been provided salvation from sin and its eternal effects. This salvation allows us to have an eternal home with God. Knowing all of this, we Christians should be full of joy. There should be a deep longing and desire to break out in songs of praise to the glory of his name. May we always shout for joy to the Lord of salvation!
