He Will Come Back . . . By Joe Macer

Acts 1:11 "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who had been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

After the resurrection of Jesus Christ, he spent the next forty days talking to his disciples about the kingdom. He continued to teach these men and gave them some instructions. He had told them before his death that he would have to go away and yet the Comforter would be sent to them. They were instructed to remain in Jerusalem and the promised Holy Spirit would be given to them. The twelve would become witnesses for Jesus and this message would be taken to the whole world. As he said this, he began his ascension into heaven. Watching him climb into the sky, they were amazed. Their eyes focused upward and they stared at the sky until the clouds hid him and then continued to watch even longer. At this time two men dressed in white let them know Jesus was gone into heaven but that he would return once again.

Jesus will come again. Christianity is based upon the resurrection of Jesus Christ and the promise of his second coming. God's people look forward to his return. His return is taught in numerous passages and we proclaim his death until he comes again in the observance of the Lord's Supper. Do you think about this return? Are you watching the clouds? Are you ready if he should come this day? Let's work to serve the Lord every day but as we do it keep an eye on the sky!
