ATTENTION: LADIES OF SOUTH GATE

Our Ladies Bible Class resumes on Wednesday, September 10 at 10:00 a.m. Teachers are Melba Pollard, Beverly Wesley, Sara Farris, Rita Skelley and Dana White.

We are finishing up the book If You Would See Good Days by Lottie Beth Hobbs and will then begin a study of Daughters of Eve (a study of women of the Bible).

Besides studying the Bible, this is a good way to develop a closer relationship with your fellow sisters in Christ. On the 3rd Wednesday of each month we have a potluck luncheon. Men of the congregation are invited to eat lunch with us and following lunch, plates are taken to shut-ins.

Cards are mailed each week and gifts are taken to shut-ins at Christmas, Valentine and Easter. Some of our ladies go visit sick and shut-ins following class each week. In addition, we have various other service projects throughout the year.

Won't you come join us?

WORKING FOR THE MASTER

Working For The Master met July 27 with 60 in attendance, 75 cards written and 15 bags of cookies prepared for sick and shut-ins.

We will meet again on August 24. The menu will be pizza and salad. Please make plans to come and participate in this good work and fellowship with fellow Christian families.
