Wow, less than two weeks till Christmas and three more Sundays (counting today) in 2014. What an incredible year this has been. As we think about winding down this year and giving gifts to others and getting some ourselves, why not take an opportunity to give something to someone who really needs it? There are several local groups like, The Family Center, Center of Hope (a domestic violence center) and plenty of families in need. You could ask around at the office of your child's school and at other places. Look for ways to focus your kids' or grandkids' attention on doing something for others. We all like to get gifts but our Lord said, "it is more blessed to give than receive" (Acts 20:35). So what are you going to give to others not normally on your list? I hope you will pray about and seek a way to do this?

—Brian

Youth4Christ forms are available on the table in the lobby for anyone who did not get a chance to sign up. Please return to Trent or Lori Hill as soon as possible.

Congratulations to Aaron and Ashley Schmitt-mitzen on the birth of a girl named Harper Kate on November 21.

The proud grandmother is Suzanna White and the proud great-grandparents are Boyd and June Wood.

THANK YOU NOTES

Thanks to everyone for all the beautiful cards I have received and all the food you have brought me. Thanks for the Thanksgiving lunch and the meal the young people brought along with the beautiful card that was made by the children.

In Christian Love, Ann Brady

Please accept my sincere thanks for all that you have done and continue to do for me. I really enjoy your cards and visits and the food is so delicious.
