As I See It. . . By Brian Gregory

We have officially started our “Foundations of Faith” campaign. The weeks following the opening of our new building, it was decided we would dedicate this building by reading God’s word out loud in its entirety. We began on a Wednesday night with the small kids reading or quoting Genesis 1 and finished on Sunday AM with our elders reading Revelation 22.

This year, beginning December 3, we are going to read God’s Word in its entirety once again. We have put out yard signs that say, “READ THE BIBLE IN 3 DAYS. We ask you to help us by placing them throughout your neighborhood and yard. Secondly, we ask you to participate. Come be part of this. Take a few minutes from your lunch break or after work to read with your family, friends, co-workers or by yourself. It is a great time to invite others. We are simply reading and are not giving any commentary or explanation. There is a huge lack of Bible knowledge among so many people and sadly among many Christians. This helps to encourage us and others to read and study more. How much will it encourage you, your family and friends to be part of this? It is amazing how much you can read in just a few minutes a day.

God, in times past, decreed His word be read publically at least every seven years (Dt. 31:9-11). How much more could we please God today by doing this yearly? Pray with us in this effort and come be part of it all.

Woe to the World. . . By Joe Macer

Matthew 18:7 Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Such things must come, but woe to the man through whom they come!

Sadly in this world there are many individuals that make their living by leading others into sin. They may not realize it or they may not see their actions as sin but they are leading people to do what is against God's will. This may be due to ignorance or in some cases it is an individual that in younger days was taught the truth but totally rebelled against it. Individuals such as Hitler or Stalin had a religious upbringing but totally left it behind. They demanded obedience to their philosophy with the threat of death if it was not followed. People sinned as a direct result of their commands. The movie industry produces items that cause people to sin as well as use people in sinful ways to produce their product. The alcohol industry despite their warning to drink responsibly only want the sale of their product which they know will bring about harm to people and sinful situations. Think of the illegal and immoral acts that take place under the influence.

Jesus said these things must come. Why? The simplest answer is that Satan is alive and active. Satan wants nothing more than to pull people away from God. If he can convince one individual to do wrong then he has won a victory. When that individual then persuades others to sin then Satan's kingdom is increased. When Satan's kingdom is increased then men will share in his destiny. Sin will always be a part of this world but those who make their living by causing others to sin will pay the eternal price.
