Blessed!.... By Joe Macer

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

The book of Revelation has seven verses that describe the blessedness of Christians. These are seven statements either directly from the Lord or from the Lord through the mouth of John. Each of these thoughts is full of important information that will help each of us have a fulfilling spiritual life as well as the heavenly home.

Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy. When is the last time that you read the book of Revelation? Lots of people keep their distance from this book. Yes, some things are difficult to understand but many concepts are easily understood. God is in control. God is working through history to bring about his desired results. God wants his faithful followers with him in heaven. God sent his Son so that this is possible. These thoughts will strengthen our faith and this comes by reading or hearing Revelation. Certainly this would apply to all Scriptures as well.

We also can bless people by reading Revelation to others or by talking about it. What have you learned from Revelation? Are you presenting this to others? We can be a blessing to others by telling them about this book and in turn they will be blessed by reading it. In both cases, the verse declares that we must take to heart what is written. We must read but we must really listen and put God's word to work in our lives. Why not find a blessing by reading Revelation this week?
